Introduction

Introduction

I thoroughly enjoy living and learning.
I consider each day a new opportunity to expand my horizons.

I'm an opportunist in that way.

Other people say I'm so good at so many things, and I'd go along with that.

My latest challenge and joy is Reiki Art Therapy
Attunement and Kaleidoscopic Meditation Video Art & Henna (which I apply freehand, upside-down, right-side-up, sideways, left-handed, right-handed, with circular calligraphy maybe, with flair likely,
with the choice of just about any subject becoming a thought that becomes a line drawing that becomes a healing art derived from my studies of psychology, physics, music, art, writing, holistic health,
energy medicine, teaching, to produce wellness of body, mind, and spirit.

A bit more history

Cathedral High School, St. Cloud, MN

August 1993 - 1997

Art Teacher for grades seven through twelve.

I'd like to thank the student who, during a class on beading, attached a pin with a fishing line type thread to a pencil and hung it out the window for the entertainment and amusement of the math class below whilst they took a test could see a pencil floating in the breeze seemingly on it's own accord. I'd also like to thank the students who attended to the bully who took my parking spot by taking the tires off his truck. I do not know which of you lovely students had the creative gumption to do the above things, but want you to know I hold you in my memory in good regard, and would have given an A for creativity.

Previous to Cathedral and after college

I was a substitute teacher at local schools.

The introduction is near completion.

Education: SCSU Bachelor of Science,
Art Education, 1969 - 1993

Activities and Societies: Home Builders Society
Foster Care for Disadvantaged, Boys & Girls Club, Art Tutor, Professional Picture Framer, Painter.

SAVTI Commercial Art, Commercial and Advertising Art & Writing, 1977 - 1979

Activities and Societies: Awards: Promotional Design and Copywriting for SAVTI which coincidentally said, "If you're going to get technical about it, we'll be here to help" Please note that the remainder of this document will get technical.

Honors and Awards: for several logos and designs,
National Anthology of Poetry: two published works,
National Small Family Farms, Poetry, Fair Ribbons, Ad Design, Art Shows, Kappa Delta Pi.

The introduction is forward-looking

This book contains documentations of some of my studies over the past 20 years. It would not be possible to fully and formally document everything I have learned during this time. Every time I do art, or work with a new computer program, or plant a garden, I learn.

You will not find any records of my studies of art therapy at masters level, although I did complete the entire course, and of course, got an A. You will not find my secret recipe for how to make cedar oil, or electroplate guards, or venetian plaster along with sculpted equine works, or marbling techniques such as you see on the cover. Nor will you find picture framing, faux-finishing, printing, pea, marketing, or teaching papers. Yet, what you will find here is just a crumb in my giant cookie of life-long learning.

The introduction is complete

I can promise that I have much to offer even though about half of my life is missing from this book.

At some point in the future I may add records pertaining to pre-2000. Many of these are still on floppy disks I no longer have. Remember the days of floppy disks and typewriters? I do.

Life got bumpy for me around 2008. I was married for 14 years and had the surname Kiser from 1989 to 2003. So I wanted you to know, Jill Johnson or Jill Kiser or Jill Annette Johnson, I am all of those documentations. If you want to check out further past events, try looking me up on my website, jtk.com.
